

WAR RISK DIRECTOR TO RECEIVE $5,000

Cannon Amendment Is Adopted.
Making Decrease of $1,000.

Little progress was made by the House yesterday with the $176,000,000 War Risk Insurance bill. Debate was under the five minute rule, adopted to expedite matters, but in addition to offering numerous trivial amendments members indulged in several unimportant arguments over words and phrases in the measure. The result was that at adjournment only one amendment had been carried.

It was introduced by Uncle Joe Cannon, reducing the salary of the War Risk Director from $10,000 to $5,000 annually.

"Parker, of New Jersey, introduced an amendment to do away with the allotment of pay and compensation features of the bill, but was beaten 54 to 29. He then submitted an amendment to do away with the proposed bureau, and lost, 64 votes to 29. His third amendment, to let the secretary of war handle the new handle the allowance feature, was beaten, 43 to 20, and his fourth, to let the pension bureau handle the compensation plan, was lost by viva voce vote.

Although the $5,000,000 urgent deficiencies measure is waiting action and House leaders are trying to get the insurance bill through, there is so much opposition that its passage cannot be predicted definitely.

NEGRO WAITER HELD ON THREE CHARGES

John L. Akers Arrested at Government Printing Office.

With three charges against him—stealing from the Government Printing Office, larceny at the cafe in the Senate Office Building and threatening his wife—John Luther Akers, colored, 18 years of age, was arrested yesterday at the Government Printing Office, where he was employed, by Central Office Detective Reckless.

Sunday night, it is said, the arrested man's wife brought a bottle of tonic, in which the smell of carbolic acid was very strong, to detective headquarters and said that her husband had given her the tonic that day and later in the evening had again told her to take it, but after smelling the medicine her suspicions were aroused.

The bottle of medicine is now in the hands of a chemist and is being analyzed.

Akers formerly worked as a waiter in the Senate cafe and while there stole a quantity of linen and silverware, according to the detective. Paper and printing material were stolen by Akers from the printing office, where he had been working for the past four weeks, said the detective. The total theft is estimated at approximately $100.

Akers was arrested at the Government Printing Office, where he was employed, by Central Office Detective Reckless.

Join the Army of Shoppers Who Are Doing Their Bit!

CARRY SMALL PACKAGES

The scene during shopping hours along any of Washington's fashionable promenades emphasizes the fact that it is "the proper thing" for shoppers to carry small packages. It's the vogue. But it is more than a mere fad. It is the patriotic co-operation of thoughtful Washington women in every walk of life. You should join this movement.

A Co-operative Delivery Service

This system of economical delivery is an association of the undersigned Washington merchants banded together in response to the call of the government to economize in their deliveries and save through this economy the Man-power, Machines, Gasoline, Rubber, Etc. All of which are vital necessities in the prosecution of the war and to be conserved to the utmost, a movement that needless to say has the endorsement of the Joint Committee of Consumers.

The Council of National Defense estimates that the average increase in price the consumer must pay for articles delivered is from 2 to 4 per cent on total sales. An Associated Delivery such as these merchants have gone into reduces this cost to approximately ONE-HALF OF ONE PER CENT.

Watch the Low Prices in the Advertisements of These Merchants if You Would Learn How Co-operative Delivery Aids the Consumer.

ALL PRIZE CIRCULATION ONTEST CORNER

Prefer to Vote for Active Members

Readers Prefer to Help Hustling Candidates
Who Mean Business. Frank C. Rupp
Leads All Competitors Today.

A number of inquiries have been received by the manager of the All-Prize Club about members who have not yet moved out of the 1,000 column. The inquiries asked whether some of the members were active, as their friends preferred to throw their votes and influence to some more active member, who was really out to win an automobile. This shows that a number of club members who have not thus far sent in many subscriptions can easily force to the front by becoming busy and showing their friends that they mean business.

A few minutes' chat every day with your friends and acquaintances will reap you big rewards.

No subscription canvass is required. Taking, for instance, some member who thus far has not moved out of the 1,000 column. He or she, in the course of regular business and ordinary daily activity, will meet practically all of his or her acquaintances between now and October 1, the closing date of the double vote period.

No matter whether you meet your friends or acquaintances in the office, the shop or dozens of other ways, call their attention to the fact that you are out to win one of the automobiles. It will mean no loss of time and you can do it from day to day and get results.

The double vote period and the $200 to be awarded the most successful vote-getter at the close of the campaign gives all candidates an opportunity to increase their vote standing and also enhances their chances for one of the prize automobiles.

If you have not sent in your nomination do so at once. It is not too late yet to join the All-Prize Home Subscription Club and win a valuable prize.

L. A. Godwin, of District 5, leads with 96,38 votes in the published list today.

DODGES DEATH TO MAKE WAR FILMS

Intrepid Cameraman Flies Over
Trenches in France.

Juggling with death became the specialty of Capt. Thompson, the intrepid official movie cameraman who made "War As It Really Is" under the direct authority from General Joffre. Judging from the pictures he took, he got more thrills out of the war than even the bombers, wire-cutters or airmen, who are generally considered to take their lives in their hands hourly. In the course of the three months spent on the front line in the region of Verdun, Capt. Thompson risked nearly every hazard possible to think of in filming French warfare, where the opposing lines were only forty feet apart, he kept grinding his camera when shells were bursting all around him, and his camera recorded a veritable chaos of explosions, only a few feet distant. Such daring has never before been displayed in picture making and to this is largely due the success of his films.

Six reels of films are promised in his pictures which is now playing at the Casino.

WAR REVENUE BILL AWAITS CONFERENCE

Speaker Expected to Announce
House Members of Committee.

The war revenue bill, to provide executive departments with $2,500,000,000 with which to prosecute the war, will now go through with a bang. This was the promise yesterday of House and Senate leaders, preparing for a conference on the measure. It has been passed by both Houses, each changing the other's measure. There are several minor points of difference, but the House will insist on only one thing, it was learned yesterday.

House conferees are to insist on restoration of increased first and second class postal rates. These increases were struck out by the Senate, but it is understood no objection will be made to restoring them. They will produce $10,000,000 in revenue. The Senate ruled income taxes and war excess profits taxes, but the House favors them. There will be no objection on this score. House leaders said late yesterday they expected to iron out differences quickly.

The Senate conferees will be Senators Simmons, Stone, Williams, Penrose and Lodge. Speaker Clark probably will name the House conferees, but he favors Moore, of the Ways and Means Committee. Senators Simmons and Penrose are out of the city, and conferees of the joint committee, probably will not begin before Friday.

Mr. Godwin has been one of the most consistent "vote getters" in The Herald's All-Prize Club. Mr. Godwin is an employee of Hecht & Co., where he has been employed for sixteen years. His many friends are looking forth to joy-riding time.

IF YOUR EARS RING WITH HEAD NOISES

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parment (double strength) add to it 2 1/2 pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Any one who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.—Adv.

WOUNDED MERCHANT RUNS DOWN ROBBER

Attacked in Store He Runs Man
Down After Exciting Chase.

Although suffering from a severely lacerated scalp and contusion of the face, William Jones, carrying a smoking revolver, yesterday chased a colored man, one of the two negroes who yesterday afternoon at 9:10 o'clock entered his confectionery store at 1031 Seventh street northwest, presumably for the purpose of robbing him, and who, according to Jones, struck him on the head with a three-foot gas pipe, into Congress court northwest, and after firing three random shots at the man, captured him and turned him over to the police. The other colored man escaped and at midnight last night the police had not captured him.

Jones was immediately rushed to the Emergency Hospital, where it was said last night that his condition was not serious.

According to the police, Walker Thompson, the negro who was captured by Jones, entered the store with the unidentified colored man, grabbed Jones by the throat and struck him with the pipe. It is said that the other man then tried to rifle the proprietor's pockets. Jones broke away and obtained his revolver from behind the counter. The two men then ran into the street, one escaping.

Mr. William E. Denny, 1023 Park Ave., Springfield, Ohio, writes: "I find great pleasure in writing you and thanking you for what Peruna has already done for me. I have been troubled with catarrh for years, and it had affected my head, nose, throat and stomach, that I could not eat nor sleep with any satisfaction."

"I have just taken three bottles. I can eat most anything and am greatly relieved of nervousness, so that when I lie down I can sleep without the least trouble. I recommend it to all those who are sufferers of that dreadful disease, catarrh."

Those who object to liquid medicines can procure Peruna Tablets.—Adv.

SHELLS DRAW TRADE TO SOUVENIR SHOPS

Brooches of Crossed Swords Also Find Ready Sale Here.

War has brought out a new class of Washington souvenirs. In many of the souvenir stores of Washington the reproduction of shells have taken the place of the statues of the Capitol, and brooches of crossed swords have usurped the throne once occupied by shields of the United States.

Cameos, with the head of Pershing, the insignia of the infantry, cavalry and artillery, made on pins for "war" to wear while "in" fights, with the same design on his collar band, and other patriotic designs occupy nearly the entire space of the display windows of souvenir shops.

Among the most striking of the new designs is the 1-1/2 inch shell which stands about eight inches high, and is a military monument to set on the desk, solemnly proclaiming defiance to the power of the Hun.

The shell is an exact reproduction of those which will be used on the submarine chasers along the coast to blow to atoms every sub which threatens the shores of America.

Believes Family Slain; Asks to Become Citizen

Tired of waiting to hear from his family in far off Syria, Saad Salamy, has applied for his first naturalization papers. Before the war broke out, he was in regular communication with his family, and one day planned to go back and join them. But since the Turks have killed off so many people, Saad has a feeling that his family met the same fate as the millions of other Syrians and Armenians and now wants to remain in the United States.

He has been in this country for 1 years. If he had only known, he stated yesterday, what the Turks were up to, he would have applied for naturalization papers long ago. Syria is now under Turkish rule.

Grandparents Adopt Children.
Justice McCoy signed a decree yesterday legalizing the adoption of 5-year-old Leta Lowell Smith by their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Smith.

The petition, which was filed through Attorney Edward S. Duval, states that the grandparents have had the care of the two children ever since the death of their father and mother.

Those who object to liquid medicines can procure Peruna Tablets.—Adv.

Mr. William E. Denny, 1023 Park Ave., Springfield, Ohio, writes: "I find great pleasure in writing you and thanking you for what Peruna has already done for me. I have been troubled with catarrh for years, and it had affected my head, nose, throat and stomach, that I could not eat nor sleep with any satisfaction."

"I have just taken three bottles. I can eat most anything and am greatly relieved of nervousness, so that when I lie down I can sleep without the least trouble. I recommend it to all those who are sufferers of that dreadful disease, catarrh."
